

2017 International Symposium on Remediation of Radioactive Contamination in the Environment

Date: Thursday, July 20, 2017
Venue: Toho Minnano Bunka Center, Small Hall
5-54 Kasugacho, Fukushima City, Fukushima Prefecture 960-8116, Japan
Organizer: The Society for Remediation of Radioactive Contamination in the Environment
Co-organizer: Japan Ministry of the Environment

Preliminary Program

14:10-14:40

1. Progress on Off-site Clean-up and Interim Storage Facility in Japan

Mr. Daisuke UESAKO
Japan Ministry of the Environment

14:40-15:20

2. Dynamics of radioactive contamination at Chernobyl Nuclear Power Plant during 31 years after the accident

Dr. Mark Zheleznyak,
Specially Appointed Professor, Fukushima University Institute of Environmental Radioactivity

15:20-15:30 Break

15:30-16:30

3. Challenges on Re-use/recycling and Long-Term Storage of Caesium-Containing Waste

Dr. Hans Codée
COVRA (Netherlands)

16:30-17:00

4. Current Trends and Issues on Contaminated Soil and Waste Treatment Technologies

Mr. Ryutaro Yatsu,
CEO, JESCO